Dear Crain's Detroit Business Subscriber,

I've sent you the enclosed Detroit Business Mini-Guide — absolutely free — to call your attention to two important facts about your Crain's Detroit Business subscription.

- FACT #1: No publication keeps you — or the people in your waiting room — more informed, entertained, and educated about important news and business developments in the Detroit area than Crain's.

In recent issues, we've covered everything from plans for Oakland County's wireless Internet access — to Delphi CEO Steve Miller's controversial wage and benefits demands of workers.

- FACT #2: Your free subscription to Crain's Detroit Business is about to expire.

But here's another FACT you should know ...

To continue reading Crain's Detroit Business, you could buy it on the newsstand, where a full year (52 issues) costs $101.45.

But why pay that much, when — as a professional displaying Crain's in your waiting room — you qualify for our lowest rate available?

Renew now, and you get our special "Professional Discount Rate." It brings you a full year of Crain's — including our annual Book of Lists special issue — for just $30 for a 1-year subscription.

But I urge you to hurry. Your subscription to Crain's Detroit Business — and this special discount renewal offer — will soon expire. After that, it's too late.

Sincerely,

Mary Kramer, Publisher

P.S. The enclosed Mini-Guide is a small sampling of what you'll find in your FREE copy of the annual Crain's Detroit Business "Book of Lists" — listing over 1,000 of the most influential businesses in the Detroit area ... FREE when you renew today!
