Dear Landlord:

Congratulations! You made a smart move by buying rental properties - and diversifying your assets beyond just owning stocks or bonds.

Despite all you hear about the "housing bubble," real estate as an investment trounced the broad markets in most parts of the country over the last few years.

In northern New Jersey, for instance, housing prices in many counties doubled over the past several years. On the opposite end of the country, in Los Angeles, home prices have also more than doubled over the past 5 years -- and in a few LA zip codes, they have tripled.

By comparison, the S&P 500 returned a measly 3.86% gain last year. And from 2000 to 2002, the S&P 500 actually lost money, generating an average annual loss of -14.84%.

Bottom line: as an investment property owner, you are building your wealth much more rapidly - and safely -- than your friends and neighbors who aren't savvy enough to invest in real estate like you have.

So while they're scrambling to make ends meet, you'll achieve financial independence - and enjoy the retirement lifestyle you dream of - years before they can even think of quitting work.

But there's a problem...

When you invest in rental properties, you automatically become a landlord - something you may not really want or enjoy.

And that's the "hidden cost" of owning rental properties that the real estate gurus conveniently never tell you about!

It means adding a whole host of responsibilities to your already packed schedule - eating even more into what little free time you have.

Worse, many of these tasks -- doing credit checks on potential tenants, writing legally binding leases, fixing a cracked foundation, even replacing an old tub or toilet - may not be your cup of tea.

Fortunately, expert help is available ... at a surprisingly modest cost of just pennies per day ... from a team of highly experienced, successful landlords who can help you save time and money managing your properties - while increasing cash flow and profits on every rental unit you own!

Make lots more profit -- from every property you own!

With your permission, I'd like to send you a FREE issue of the CompleteLandlord.com Landlord Profit Letter -- the nation's premiere resource for small and part-time landlords - to review in the comfort and privacy of your home or office.

Like you, our readers are not the Donald Trumps or Robert Kiyosakis of the world - not big professional investors, speculators, or entrepreneurs whose main business is real estate.

Rather, the CompleteLandlord.com Landlord Profit Letter is for men and women who invest in real estate to build a million-dollar-plus net worth while juggling other interests.

You see, we recognize that you are busy and wear many hats in life ... and that "landlord" is only one of them.

We also recognize that while investing in rental properties may help you get wealthy, your time and financial resources are not infinite - and some of your properties may be throwing off only a modest positive cash flow, if any.

That's where the CompleteLandlord.com Quaterly Profit Letter can help you save time and money ... while increasing cash flow and profit on every property you own.

Importantly, all of our advice is geared toward the small landlord who needs all the help he or she can get ... not the moguls, tycoons, and fat cats with decades of experience and lots of hired help at their beck and call.

In fact, 90% of our members own 5 buildings or fewer. And six out of ten have been landlords for fewer than 5 years.

FREE Unlimited Access to the CompleteLandlord.com Lease Creation Pro™ and library of 900 state specific forms

As a landlord myself and owner of several apartment buildings, I think one of the most valuable services you get as a member of CompleteLandlord.com Club is online access to our library of more than 900 landlording forms, many of which are designed specifically for your state.

Let's face it: managing your rental properties involves an endless parade of forms - many of them complex and hard to understand.

You can pay your attorney $100 to $200 an hour to draft forms for you. Or buy "boilerplate" forms and then redraft and retype them to meet your needs.

But when you join CompleteLandlord.com, you get 24/7 access to an online library of hundreds of forms used by hundreds of thousands of successful real estate investors nationwide to manage their rental properties.

The online forms library is continually updated. So the forms are never out of obsolete, and always reflect the most current real estate law. Many state-specific forms are available. And because they're electronic files, you can easily personalize and customize our forms in seconds!

Access to the online forms library alone can be worth many times your modest membership fee ... and the forms are just one of many benefits of Premium Membership!

The expert property management team you can "hire" for less than 27 cents a day

You know that being a landlord involves some significant expenses - Plumbers, electricians, carpenters, and other contractors all charge a pretty penny. Just to have them set foot through the front door can cost you $50 to $100 for the visit - and hundreds more to fix the problem.

Then there's property taxes, mortgage payments, and fees to CPAs, attorneys, and real estate brokers - all of which can add up to thousands of dollars. And that doesn't begin to account for the value of your own time - giving up precious Saturdays to handle property needs from mowing lawns to fixing toilets.

Of course, you could hire a professional property manager. But they're unlikely to have the breadth and depth of landlord experience that the CompleteLandlord.com team has. And their fee would be stiff: about 10% of all the rent you collect on the properties they manage for you. On 5 units with rents of $1,000 a month, the property manager's fee alone would come to a hefty $6,000 a year!

Yes, it's all worth it, of course, when your real estate investing helps you build your million-dollar-plus net worth. So you can retire wealthy, years ahead of schedule. But now, you can "hire" the CompleteLandlord team of experienced landlords to work day - only $97 for a full year of risk-free service. You save a fortune!

The CompleteLandlord Editors have a combined experience of over 25 years as landlords managing dozens of their own properties ... so you can learn from their experience and avoid the expensive mistakes they've made.

Bottom line: becoming a member of CompleteLandlord.com can save you time and money ... and add many thousands of dollars to your profit-and-loss statement. If you know business, you know that's a good deal.

What's more, the CompleteLandlord.com Landlord Profit Letter must make or save you at least 2 to 10 times the membership fee ... or it won't cost you a dime. Here's why....

Build your real estate fortune ... without making it your full-time job.

Being a real estate investor can be incredibly rewarding - and owning investment properties is perhaps the last legitimate way for the average person in America to get rich today. But being a landlord can be a hassle ... and tenants, contractors, and town property tax assessors can give you ulcers. That's why I urge you to accept my offer of a no-risk trial membership to a CompleteLandlord.com Premium Membership - the premiere advisory service for small and part-time landlords.

I guarantee that you will find no other service more useful - or practical - than CompleteLandlord.com when it comes to saving time, money, and aggravation in managing your properties ... and increasing your cash flow and profits.
