Here's How Our TestTube Beauty Sampling Program Works . . .

Every other month, a beautifully wrapped, super-sized gift tube - called the TestTube - arrives at your door filled with at least a half dozen deluxe and full-size beauty samples worth well over $100.

Each TestTube gives you upscale, in-demand products manufactured by leading cosmetics companies including Orlane, Clay, Perricone MD, Philosophy, MoroccanOil, and Dr. Brandt.

For example, we recently included a full-size bottle (value: $80) of SkinCeutiv-EV Even Brightening Serum, an innovative serum that helps eliminate discoloration and dark spots to give you a smoother, more even-toned complexion.

Another TestTube contained Kneipp Eucalyptus Herbal Bath Salt where the soothing aromas of eucalyptus help relax you and may even provide cold and sinus relief.

And in yet another TestTube, our members unwrapped a jar of John Frieda's amazing Frizz-Ease Straight Fixation Smoothing Cream. This smoothing cream helps you win the battle against humidity and helps keep your hair soft and sleek while also moisturizing and protecting your locks.

One of our most recent TestTube products was Camille Beckman's Glycerin Hand Therapy. A blend of glycerin, Vitamin E, aloe vera and botanical extracts, this luxurious gluten-free formula will leave your hands healthier and softer after just one use.

With a subscription to our TestTube beauty sampling program, you get to experiment with new products that can solve your beauty concerns. You can test-drive the best beauty products on the market before you buy. And you never know when you're going to discover a new and innovative beauty product you just can't live without!

Our selection of beauty products seems to be on target: 95% of TestTube subscribers say they would recommend the service to their family or friends. They like TestTube because it helps them discover beauty products that work for them. And they like being able to try samples before buying the products on their own.

If you want to continue using a TestTube product after it runs out, each TestTube includes an educational pamphlet that tells you about the ingredients in the formulation, tips for usage, and where to purchase the product. That way, you can continue to use your favorite TestTube discoveries all year long.

Here's another advantage of the TestTube service: The product samples you get are designed for women like us, not the 20-somethings with super-model hair and flawless skin. The beauty products you get are formulated to work on our faces, our hands, our lips, our teeth, and our hair -- to repair any flaws or damage and make us look beautiful and radiant.
