

"My husband John is in his mid-50s, but he makes love like a man 30 years younger!"

—Eveline Byington

A true-life story...

"How my prostate doctor helped me please my wife more in bed — without dangerous drugs or risky surgery!"

FROM: John Byington, Pine Street Research

TO: Men over 40 who are sexually active — or want to be

RE: New technology for a better, fuller sex life... even if your performance has greatly diminished with age

Private and Confidential

After 25 minutes of the best love-making we'd had in months, my wife Eveline leaned back on the pillow, her eyes closed, a faint blush on her bare chest.

Slowly, she opened her eyes and, smiling, looked at me admiringly.

"Wow," she said, as I watched the moonlight glisten off her sensuous, sexy, sweat-covered torso. "John, what happened? I mean, we both know sex hasn't been — well — the best lately..."

"Let's be honest," I laughed. "It's been virtually nonexistent ... and we both know the reason."

She ran her hand down my chest, onto my stomach, slowly toward my groin, where I felt a stirring I hadn't felt for a long time, until just recently.

"So what happened just now?" she asked with excitement in her voice. "You were wonderful -- just like when we were first dating!"

I reached out and gently ran the back of my fingers over the nipple of her left breast, which immediately became erect under my touch. Her body trembled with pleasure, and she arched her back ever so slightly. Although she and I are middle-aged, she's still gorgeous. Still beautiful, I thought as we relaxed in our bed.

"Well, I suppose you could mostly thank Dr. Eliaz for tonight," I began.

She sat up, concerned. Dr. Eliaz was my prostate specialist, and I had had prostate cancer several years ago — part of the reason, we knew, for my fading sex drive and problems maintaining an erection.

"John," she asked in a worried voice, her eyes open wide with concern. "Is something wrong?"

"Relax," I said, hugging her to reassure her. "Nothing's wrong, and my cancer hasn't come back. In fact," I said, looking down the length of the blanket, "things are better there than ever before — and they're going to stay that way."

"How?" Eveline asked, genuinely curious.

This is the story I told her and now want to share with you. If you will let me.

"WOW!" said my wife after 25 minutes of non-stop lovemaking.
'What happened?' Here's the sexual secret I told her..."

With me having both colon and prostate cancer, Eveline and I have been through some very rough times.

She's one of the two most important people who helped me get through my health crisis. The other is my wonderful physician, Dr. Isaac Eliaz. He is the M.D. who treated my prostate cancer.

While I was in treatment, Isaac and I became good friends. And our friendship has continued ever since.

During one of our conversations a couple of years back, Isaac mentioned an extraordinary research project he was conducting in the area of improving sexual performance in men over 40.

The goal of Dr. Eliaz's research? To help men eliminate a wide range of sexual problems, including premature ejaculation, inability to get and maintain an erection, lack of sexual desire, and overall lack of energy.

Isaac explained to me he was doing this research with Michael Broffman and Michael McCulloch of the prestigious Pine Street Chinese Medical Clinic in San Anselmo, California -- recently cited in San Francisco Focus as "experts in their fields."

The result of this intensive research is a scientifically blended formulation of 43 vital nutrients and other key ingredients that can literally "turbocharge" your sex drive and performance while contributing significantly to your overall health and vitality.

Pine Street researchers call it the "Syner-Chi System." Eveline and I simply call it the best thing that ever happened to our sex life! And if you ever have any problems in that area, you may too.

But don't take my word for it. Here's what other men (and their partners!) are saying about the Syner-Chi System for improved sexual health and performance....

"Two days after starting on Syner-Chi, I felt the most terrific urge to have sex again. I couldn't keep my hands off my wife ... she was so surprised, she didn't know what came over me....My erections are hard and last a long time and really satisfy her....Not only has our sex life soared to new heights, but our whole relationship has improved — I guess it's because she feels wanted like never before!"

—Robert R., Virginia

"This is a second marriage for both of us, and we never expected to be like 20-year-olds in bed. My husband read about Syner-Chi and tried some. Well, all of a sudden I had a man who was 'rarin' to go!' And I LOVE it."

—Mary C., Arizona

"I'm feeling better because I know I can be good in bed, and satisfy my partner whenever I want to."

—Tom G., New Mexico

"Almost as soon as I started taking the Syner-Chi Vitalizer, I noticed a lessening of anxiety and a generally calmer approach to things that used to be stressful. And sexually, I'm much more focused, more energetic, more affectionate."

—Mark P., California

"The most noticeable change immediately was in my enjoyment of sex and how quickly my vitality came back. I have also noticed a greater awareness in my sexual desires. This product is very smooth in its effect, producing a deep sense of sexual vitality."

—Mark. M, Colorado

"I find the Syner-Chi System to be excellent tonifiers and support for my overall well-being and my sexual energy. The Booster Tablets have helped amplify the quality and length of my orgasms when making love, while the Vitalizer provides an added boost to my wellness and male energy in every day life."

—Dr. F.S., New Mexico

A Two-in-One System for Total Satisfaction in Lovemaking

Pine Street Research designed Syner-Chi as a two-part system rather than a single formulation. Here's why....

To perform sexually and enjoy yourself while doing it, you've got to have overall good vitality and energy. The first part of the Syner-Chi System, Syner-Chi Vitalizer, addresses this on a daily basis.

Dr. Eliaz and the Pine Street Research team spent years researching and verifying the "efficacy" (effectiveness) of the world's most powerful compounds for increasing physical energy, well being, and sexual performance -- on both a mental and physical level.

They then optimally blended 43 of the most essential of these supplements into the Syner-Chi System.

Some of these ingredients are vitamins and nutrients you should be getting in your everyday diet, but probably don't.

For instance, the Syner-Chi formula contains an optimum dosage of zinc citrate, which contributes to prostate health and helps the genitals function correctly. (Oysters contain high amounts of zinc, which is why they are reported to aid intercourse if eaten by the male prior to sex.)

Other ingredients are things you won't find in your daily diet or most other popular nutritional supplements ... powerful sex-enhancing compounds you'll probably be getting only from your Syner-Chi.

One of these ingredients, licorice extract, is proven to strengthen the adrenals, which produce the hormones known as androgens. A study of 737 impotent males taking an herbal formula containing licorice showed very strong improvement in potency in 89% of these patients.

"Can you satisfy a woman every time just by taking this simple supplement pill a few minutes before you take her to bed?"

While the Syner-Chi Vitalizer invigorates your body systems and restores the energy and health needed for peak sexual performance and enjoyment, we recommend that the formula be taken daily for at least three months to achieve maximum results.

But since you and your partner want great sex starting right away, the Pine Street research team has added a second component to the system -- the Syner-Chi Plus Booster tablets.

Once you've been taking Syner-Chi Vitalizer for a while, you may need the Syner-Chi Plus Booster tablets infrequently or not at all (and if the latter is the case, simply return them for a refund).

Right now, however, you simply take 2 to 4 booster tablets about an hour before you and your partner are going to have sex.

A research study from a clinic in Boulder, Colorado shows that men who have taken the Syner-Chi Vitalizer for only one month have achieved impressive results.

Of all respondents:

The Syner-Chi Plus Booster tablets contain perfectly safe but extremely powerful potency elements, metabolic enhancers, and central nervous stimulants that immediately give you the energy, stamina, and erection-forming (and holding) abilities you need to totally satisfy your partner in bed.

These ingredients include an optimum amount of the following:

Inosine, for increasing stamina and endurance ... American ginseng powder, for stimulating metabolic functions and increasing endocrine activity ... vitamin B-3, which can heighten skin-to-skin sensation ... L-arginine, which helps the body release nitric oxide and hormones vital to maintaining an erection ... a small amount of yohimbe extract, a powerful stimulant known to enhance sexual performance and increase blood flow to the penis ... oat extract, for heightening sexual desire ... muira puama, a pro-sexual herb from the South American rain forest and epimedium leaf extract, believed to aid a number of male sexual problems as well as tone the kidneys.

In one study, conducted at Shanghai People's Hospital, 21 cases of male impotence were treated with an herbal formula containing epimedium. Thirteen of these patients enjoyed a return to normal sexual function in just 3 days!

In a different study, this one conducted at the Zhejiang Provincial Hospital of Chinese Medicine, epimedium was used to treat 182 men ages 25 to 41 who suffered from low sperm count. In 65% of these patients, sperm count increased.

If you lack desire ... or have the desire but can't perform ... or the very thought of sex makes you tired, the Syner-Chi Plus Booster tablets will safely and effectively energize you — and enable you to perform in bed like a much younger man — as nothing else you've ever tried has.

Yours FREE — “the most erotic guide to lovemaking you've ever read”

When you request your no-risk trial shipment of the Syner-Chi System within the next 10 days, you will also receive, as a bonus, a FREE copy of the Pine Street Medical Education & Research Group's provocative report, “Satisfying Sex.”

I call it “erotic” not because it's written in tantalizing style (actually the tone of the text is straightforward and practical, although some of the more explicit illustrations may get your blood racing), but because it contains vital information and strategies that can help enhance your sex life as never before.

Including:

- * The sexual performance problem more than one out of four men have had for a full month or more during the past 12 months — and how to overcome it
- * How to ensure sexual symptoms are not caused by a more serious illness
- * 6 most common causes of inability to achieve an erection ... and the recommended treatment for each
- * Substances to avoid that can inhibit sexual ability and performance
- * How to protect yourself against prostate cancer and other prostate disease
- * 5 essential steps to better sexual health
- * Eliminating roadblocks to sexual contentment
- * How to determine if your sexual performance and frequency of intercourse is “normal” compared to the statistical averages
- * A 24-point checklist for achieving and maintaining peak sexual health, performance, and enjoyment.

You can't buy the Pine Street report on “Satisfying Sex” anywhere, at any price. But a copy is yours FREE when you order the Syner-Chi System risk-free within the next 10 days.

Use the Syner-Chi System for a full month ... then let your sex life decide whether it's working for you!

Today I'm over 50, and studies show that only 23% of men my age make love 2 to 4 times a week or more. Before Syner-Chi, having Eveline even hint that she was in a romantic mood filled me with anxiety, and rarely were the results anything but sadly disappointing for us.

Since taking Syner-Chi, I'm happy to report that Eveline and I are members of that "23% club" ... in fact, we make love more often — and enjoy it better — than when we were first married!

I can't guarantee the same results for you, because our research shows that certain rare situations and conditions can't be overcome — even by Syner-Chi.

However, I can — and do — guarantee your complete satisfaction with the Syner-Chi System with this unconditional money-back offer:

If for any reason ... or for no reason ... you decide taking Syner-Chi is not for you, simply return the unused portion -- or even the empty bottle -- within one year. We will promptly refund the money you paid us for your initial purchase in full ... no questions asked.

I normally work pretty late, but I want to finish this letter early -- for two good reasons: First, to get it out to you as soon as possible, so if you're having sexual problems, you can start getting rid of them within the next few days. And second, because Eveline just telephoned and told me that when I get home, she'll be wearing the new lacy-nothing I got her from Victoria's Secret for our anniversary. And I'm already too excited to continue writing for much longer.

But before I go, I want to urge you to accept Pine Street's generous offer to try the Syner-Chi System risk-free, with no commitment or obligation of any kind.

From first-hand experience, I can assure you there's simply no better, safer way to put sexual power, energy, potency -- and excitement -- back into your intimate relationships.

You owe it to yourself to find out first-hand just what the Syner-Chi System can do for you, your life, and your partner.

Send for your risk-free supply of Syner-Chi Vitalizer and Syner-Chi Plus Booster tablets today. You'll be glad you did.

Sincerely,

John Byington

P.S. Remember, Syner-Chi is guaranteed to eliminate sexual dysfunction and make a tremendous improvement in your sex life and performance. If you do not agree that taking it has sent your sex life into the stratosphere, simply return the unused portion of your shipment (or the empty bottle) within 52 weeks for a full and prompt refund of every penny you paid us. In this way, trying the Syner-Chi System costs you nothing. There's no risk. And no commitment of any kind. You can't lose!

P.P.S. Whatever you decide, the confidential Pine Street Research "Satisfying Sex" bonus report is yours to keep at no cost ... our way of saying "thanks" for giving the Syner-Chi System a try.
