... Read on for the specific trade you should make to earn 600+% profits from the coming bull market in gold

Join us today, and we will even buy your next gold coin for you. It's yours FREE—our gift to you!

Dear Investor:

I'm not a traditional gold bug. The yellow metal holds no special lure for me.

Yet despite that, we've recently made handsome profits by buying into gold in the right way—and at the right time.

In February 2002, for instance, we told our members, "Buy Barrick Gold."

"Barrick is a low-cost producer with access to capital and resources it will need when the inevitable industry consolidation occurs," we wrote in our advisory bulletin. "Barrick will actually benefit from the shakeout, since they will be able to pick up good mines on the cheap."

Well, just as we predicted, Barrick acquired another mining company—Homestake Mining. Within 5 months, the stock had shot up from $10.94 to $17.48—and we locked in a quick gain of 59.78%.

And this is not an isolated incident. Over the past 10 years, our recommendations have produced a cumulative return of 264.36%—including 37.89% profits on Anglo-American Platinum and 65.12% in ASA, Ltd., a South African Gold Fund.

If you had invested $100,000 in a portfolio of our recommendations 10 years ago, your original investment would now be worth over $360,000—a clear profit of more than a quarter of a million dollars. You would have more than TRIPLED your money in just one decade!

Even in today's crushing bear market, we continue to make handsome profits, producing an average annualized return of +12.24% for the last 3 years (the S&P 500 lost an average of -5.24% a year for that same period).

Now, we're about to release another gold recommendation that has the potential to outshine even our Barrick Gold trade. Profits on this one could easily hit the 600% mark or even higher, and I am utterly convinced that this play is ...

... The Surest Way To Earn Triple-Digit Returns From The Coming Bull Market In Gold

The company we are buying, Placer Dome, is a major gold producer—and owning it is absolutely the best way to make tremendous triple-digit profits from the unstoppable bull market for gold we're about to enter.

Unlike many junior gold mining firms, this senior mining company is tremendously profitable, with substantial gold reserves, little debt, and low cost of production.

This year, they are on track to produce 3.5 million ounces of gold, up a whopping one million ounces from 2.5 million last year. That's due primarily to Placer's recent acquisition of AurionGold and its discovery of 3 million ounces of gold at the company's Cortez Hills venture.

In the latest quarter, Placer Dome reported a record-breaking $64 million in net earnings. Their cash flow from operations for the year totaled $450 million, or $1.11 per share, with operating earnings of $375 million, based on a gold price of $325 an ounce.

Even at a gold price of $300 per ounce, cash flow from operations would be $350 million, with operating earnings of $275 million. The company has huge gold reserves—52.9 million ounces total.

But to really make money in gold mining, you have to produce gold for less than its current price per ounce. Today, with gold around $325 an ounce, Placer Dome's cash cost to produce gold is approximately $185 per ounce.

On the upside, your profit potential on this trade is virtually unlimited. Because the company is one of the world's largest gold producers, owning its shares is as close as you can come to a pure, leveraged play on the price of gold.

When gold moves up just 10%, this stock generally moves up 30% to 40%. A 20% increase in the price of gold can easily lift the stock 60% to 80%.

To get our full research report on Placer Dome—including when to buy, our target price, and how to play Placer Dome as either a straight stock trade or an options contract—just mail the enclosed enrollment form today.

Given the current economy and market, it would not be unreasonable for Placer Dome's stock price to gain 100% within the next 6 months.

And if the stock doubles, as we believe it will, the options trade we recommend will return a whopping 603.3% profit! Of course, we can't guarantee you will make over 600% on this option—it depends when you get in, but options like this one are the best way to shoot for triple-digit profits.

"If you have no exposure to gold or precious metals, it is absolutely essential that you change that immediately. The most conservative advisors usually recommend at least 5% of your portfolio in precious metals; 10% or even more is perfectly acceptable."

—Dr. Steve Sjoggerud, President, Investment U
(February 20, 2003)

In fact, when you act now, I'll not only send you our complete research report on Placer Dome—but I'll also arrange for you to receive, absolutely FREE, the coin pictured on the enclosed Request Certificate—an authentic gold coin certified as "gem brilliant uncirculated" by the Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS).

If you've received previous letters from me, you know that I'm not in the habit of giving away gold coins. In fact, I've never done it before. So why am I offering you a free gold coin now? For two reasons.

First, to get your attention. And second, to dramatize the important role that gold should play—indeed, must play—in your investment strategy for the months ahead.

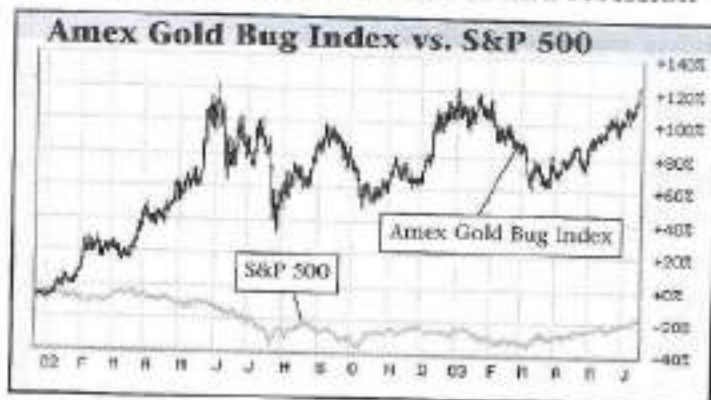

Let me explain ...

603% Profit From The New Bull Market In Gold

Whenever people lose confidence in the stock market and the economy—as they have in this current bear market and recession—they shift their assets away from equities and toward natural resources ... especially precious metals in general and gold in particular.

This shift has already started to take place, and it is driving the gold market steadily upward.

Over the last two years, for example, the AMEX Gold Bug Index has more than doubled—up a cool 120%. By comparison, the S&P 500 lost 21% during that same period.

And today all indicators are pointing toward a new bull market in gold:

- Stocks are overpriced. Bonds are near a 41-year low. Money markets yield next to nothing. Gold, however, is selling for less than half what it cost in 1980. On a relative basis, it's a bargain.
- The dollar is declining against many world currencies. Since 9/11, the U.S. and the dollar are no longer viewed as safe havens. With the introduction of the "hard" euro, investors have an alternative to the U.S. dollar as a reserve currency. All of this is bullish for gold.

- Many major mining companies, including the big gold producer we're buying now, have stopped or reduced hedging their gold production. By not selling their production forward in the futures market, a potential ceiling on the price of gold has been removed. There's no limit to how high gold prices can climb!
- Finally, demand for gold worldwide is increasing. Recently, American soldiers seized two trucks in Iraq carrying $600 million in gold bars. If you live in a country, like Brazil, where paper currency is suspect, gold is a tangible alternative with intrinsic value. Dollar value demand for gold in the latest quarter increased 12% over the previous year.

"Gold will be part of the international monetary system in the 21st Century ... we are seeing a gradual, but marked change in investors sentiment toward gold."

—Nobel Prize-Winning Economist
Robert Mundell, quoted from the recently published book, The Case for Gold.

So strongly do we urge investors to keep at least 5% of their liquid net worth in precious metals that we will help get you started in that direction—by arranging for you to receive a FREE GOLD COIN when you join our financial fellowship within the next 30 days. Read on for details ...

How to qualify for your FREE GOLD COIN

Sitting on my coin dealer's desk, all packed up and ready to send you ...

... is one of the most incredibly valuable Investor's Kits for buying gold ever assembled—including a FREE gold coin!

That's right. As you've just read, we are recommending to all of our members that they immediately put at least 5% of their portfolios into gold—for the reasons I've outlined above.

And to get you started, your FREE Investor's Gold Kit includes a genuine gold coin in uncirculated condition. It's yours at no cost for the asking, when you just complete and mail the enclosed Enrollment Form. (Who else is giving you free gold these days?)

Your free Investor's Gold Kit includes this gold coin plus two valuable bonus gifts:

- FREE Bonus Gift #1: "The Red Book" (350 pages; hardcover book)—the most widely read rare coin pricing guide—a vital tool for maximizing your investment in gold and silver coins.
- FREE Bonus Gift #2: "The Insider's Guide to U.S. Coin Values" (231 pages; paperback book)—gives you the fair market value of every U.S. coin with numismatic value—from 19th century silver dollars to 20th century gold coins.

But wait. There's more.

Send for the kit today, and you'll also get a free copy of The Oxford Club's just-published Investor Report, Golden Days are Here Again (cover price: $49).

In this report, you will discover:

- Why a 40% shortfall in gold production is poised to send gold prices soaring (p. 17).

- Gold hit $800 an ounce in the 1980s. Can it do so again today? Surprising answer (p. 4).
- The imminent collapse of the U.S. dollar—and how to protect yourself NOW (p. 10).
- The U.S. central banks' quirky new policy to jumpstart the economy—and what it means to serious gold buyers (p. 12).
- New Chinese gold-buying frenzy. 1.3 billion Asian buyers may drive bullion prices through the roof (p. 18).
- The 3 best ways to invest in gold in today's market (p. 22).
- The #1 gold producer to own right now—and an easy way to leverage the trade for quick triple-digit profits (this is the gold giant I mentioned earlier; see p. 25).

Now, the bad news: You cannot buy our special Gold Report anywhere, at any price.

The good news: a copy is yours FREE—along with your FREE GOLD COIN—when you accept my special no-risk invitation to join The Oxford Club ... the world's largest private investment club.

Avoid This Costly Gold Bug's Mistake

Yes, we've helped our members make a lot of money in the stock market—more than tripling the value of their portfolios within a decade.

Yes, we've made our members tidy profits in gold ... including 60% on Barrick Gold and 65% on ASA, Ltd.

But unlike many other advisories that pick winning gold trades, we're not gold bugs.

Rather, the mission of our financial fellowship, The Oxford Club, is to help our members make good profits wherever they are to be found—in whatever market is hot, in whatever investment is profitable, wherever in the world that may be. Not to push gold or any one particular investment vehicle, like the gold newsletters do.

That means when gold is rising, we put it in our portfolio—and ride the gold bull for hefty gains.

When it's not, we stay away—and put our money into what's working at the time.

For instance, after the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001, Wall Street had panicked—and the price of luxury retailer Tiffany & Co. fell from nearly $28 to $21 a share. Most mainstream financial analysts were saying that shock from the terrorist attacks would put a damper on luxury spending.

"Gold represents the purest form of wealth, the elemental basin of riches, the absolute among assets. Its liquidity surpasses that of any other investment."

—James R. Cook, The Great Gold Comeback

We disagreed, and in a special bulletin advised Oxford Club members to "load up" on Tiffany at $21. Within 9 months, the stock had climbed to $31.50, at which time we told Club members to sell and take profits of 50%.

This was like getting a diamond for the price of cubic zirconium: An investment of $25,000 grew to $47,500—which, by the way, can get you something really nice at Tiffany's.

(Had you leveraged the Tiffany trade with a well-timed option, you'd be up over 500%!)

We recommended another retailer, Office Depot, when it hit rock bottom over a year ago—and 9 months later, we told our members to sell and lock in a profit of 73%.

On March 1, 2000, we predicted that 2001 would be another disastrous year for the U.S. stock market—and recommended safe, high-return investments in Ecuador.

The result? While the S&P 500 fell 13%, Ecuador was the top-performing stock market in 2001, gaining a whopping 157%—beating the S&P by 170%.

Incidentally, beating the pants off the market is nothing new for The Oxford Club. We've been doing it through bull and bear markets for nearly two decades.

For instance:

- In the early 1990s, we recognized the tremendous opportunity in undervalued global stocks. And we recommended to our members that they buy Telebras, up 106% ... Bank for International Settlements, up 83% ... The Swiss Helvetica Fund, up 60% ... and Royal Dutch Shell, up 115%.
- During the mid-90s, we got our members into the then-hot natural resources industry (booming again today). Our basket of resource and exploration stocks returned 178% in 22 months.
- In the late 1990s, with our "trailing stop-loss strategy," our members were among the few tech investors who didn't watch their profits evaporate in the tech-stock meltdown that followed. Among our successes were 94% profits on Transwitch in 2 months ... 101% profits on Nextlink in 5 months ... 80% profits on Adobe in 9 months ... and 56% profits on Trimeris in 2 months.
- In the 2000s, our income portfolio is a comforting way to generate steady gains with ultra-solid investments. About a year ago, we recommended the Templeton Global Income Fund, which carries a government guarantee on more than 90% of its holdings. So far, the fund is up 18%, and it pays a healthy 8% dividend. Meanwhile, the Aberdeen Asia-Pacific Income Fund we told our members to buy pays a 10% yield, and has been steadily rising as Asian economic fortunes improve.

And today we are continuing to make our members ...

... Spectacular, Safe Profits In Horrendously Volatile Markets

If you're like most investors, the latest 3-year bear market has not made you a happy camper.

But Oxford Club members are still smiling! That's because our research team continually ferrets out new opportunities for big profits, regardless of whether the market is up, down, or flat.

"I've been following The Oxford Club's advice exclusively, and I recently made over $70,000 using their recommendations," says Jay Romano, of Vero Beach, Florida.

Another member, Dan French, bought a brand new car with the profits he made by buying an automobile stock the Club recommended.

"On the Club's advice, I bought stock in Daimler Chrysler at $65 per share and sold it at $112 six months later," says French. "I made enough profit on just a modest investment to make the deposit on my new Mercedes Benz C230."

"I wasn't a member until I peeked at my son-in-law's issue of the Club newsletter, The Communiqué," says Bryan Carpenter of Juniper, Michigan. "I followed the advice and made 100% on Darden in just over a year. That's when I decided to join."

"Thanks to The Oxford Club, my portfolio is up over 252% over the last 12 months," reports Edward Bayliss. And member Douglas Bratt says, "I picked up almost $7,000 in profit in only 9 days."

In one recent recommendation, Club members who got in had the opportunity to earn an almost unbelievable return—633%, in just 8 days—on a company with a rather mundane product: packing material. Members who took a $10,000 position in this company saw their original investment grow to $73,300 in about a week.

The fact is, even in a bear market, there are stocks that go up every day. And we have a number of ways of spotting those companies early, before Wall Street gets wind of them.

One of our winning strategies is the Club's momentum trading system, which shows members how to buy shares in companies whose sales, earnings, and stock price have recently begun a rapid upward climb.

Momentum trading works because price is the purest indicator of the market's opinion of a company. When price starts moving up, you know investors are valuing the stock higher in their minds, whether the numbers justify it or not.

We take advantage of those short spikes in the stock curve, and get out before reality catches up with the market and the stock flatlines or comes tumbling back down.

The Oxford Club recommended Advance PCS, a health services company, as a momentum trade. In less than 90 days, the stock increased 37%, from $58.50 to over $80.

And when the Feds were lowering interest rates to help support the market and the economy, homeowners rushed to refinance and take advantage of lower rates. We told our Oxford Club members to buy American Home Mortgage at $16.50, and those who listened made a 34.5% profit in just 10 days.

After George W. Bush threatened retaliation against the terrorists responsible for the World Trade Center and Pentagon attacks, we recommended Engineering Support Systems, a fast-growth defense contractor. Within 14 days, the stock rose 36.4%.

The Biggest Retail Profits Are South Of The Border

One of our favorite investments right now is a Mexican company: WalMex. They are Mexico's biggest retailer and the South American branch of Sam Walton's Wal-Mart.

In the United States, Wal-Mart is the greatest retail success story of the century. Had

"The bull market in gold is going to last for years and it's still in the early stages."

—Mary Anne & Pamela Aden, editors,
The Aden Forecast
(Feb 2003)

you invested $5,000 in Wal-Mart stock in 1971, your shares would be worth $10 million today.

Now Wal-Mart is getting ready to repeat this neat little trick with their stores in Mexico, and the good news is, you and I can get in on the ground floor now at a very affordable price of around $2.50 a share!

WalMex is on a fast-track to explosive growth. They already operate over 600 commercial outlets, and just announced a $600-million expansion plan to open 61 new stores. The Wall Street Journal says: "Today, barely a decade after it entered Mexico in anticipation of the North American Free Trade Agreement, Wal-Mart dominates this country's retail sector."

In the most recent quarter, WalMex sales were up 9%, operating profits up 8%. And the company has $522 million in cash on hand.

The soft economy in South America actually works in WalMex's favor, because it offers customers lower prices—on practically everything—than virtually any other retailer in Mexico.

When you join The Oxford Club, we'll tell you what you need to know to profit handsomely from Wal Mex. And we'll also share with you ...

... What A World-Renowned Investor Is Buying Right Now

With our extensive network of investment contacts—bankers, traders, financiers, entrepreneurs, planners, and portfolio managers—and more than 45,000 members in 100 countries, The Oxford Club often hears about special investment opportunities and under-publicized ventures most investors never even find out about.

No wonder our Oxford Club investment advisors have been featured by major media such as The O'Reilly Factor, Meet the Press, CNBC, Forbes.com, Barron's, The Wall Street Journal, and the New Orleans Money Conference!

For instance, we recently got wind of a red-hot Chinese utility from a private conversation with the former partner of billionaire investor George Soros—a man whose fund rose 3,365% vs. just 47% for the S&P 500. The company's fundamentals are strong and the stock is very cheap, selling at just one times book value. We told members: "Buy now!"

We've also seen handsome profits by following the "secret money trail" of corporate insiders—executives who are so confident that their company is going to succeed that they buy huge blocks of their own stock.

For instance, B.L. Schwartz, Chairman of the Board of GlobalStart Telecom, bought 100,000 shares of his company's stock at $13.60 a share. In less than 10 months, it was selling for $49.50, giving Mr. Schwartz a 264% gain and a profit of more than $1 million.

In May 2002, when we saw insider trading at Omega Health, we recommended the stock at $5.90. In July 2002, we told our members to sell, locking in a quick 17% profit in just 8 weeks.

Then, in December, our research team saw increased insider trading at NY Community

Bancorp. We recommended them and then issued a sell recommendation 6 months later for a gain of 18%.

Other successful Oxford Club recommendations include:

- 633% profits on Sealed Air.
- 45.83% profits on Panera Bread.
- 153.62% profits on Industrial Holdings.
- 72.97% profits on Bangkok Bank.
- 300% profits on Telebras.
- 115.85% profits on Royal Dutch Shell.
- 56.82% profits on Immunex.
- 102.53% profits on CIFRA.
- 133.33% profits on Anixter.
- 80.80% profits on Adobe.
- 54% profits on Singapore Air.
- 440% profits on NextLink.
- 114.29% profits on Darden Restaurants.
- 107.87% profits on Datacraft.
- 121.04% profits on Brazil Fund.
- 222% profits on eBay.

Now, you can join our fellowship and enjoy "good profits in the company of good friends" (our group's credo for nearly two decades) ... at an astonishingly low first-time member's fee.

"Oxford Club members should have no less than 5% of their liquid net worth in precious metals."

—Alex Green, Investment Director, The Oxford Club
(April 2003)

Here are just some of the "million-dollar ideas" our members recently received in their twice-monthly issues of The Communiqué—the official "letter of record" for The Oxford Club:

- Where to double your money in 5 years, regardless of what happens in the stock market.
- Why you should absolutely, positively sell all your shares of Microsoft NOW!
- Only one class of stocks always does well after a recession, increasing an average of 41%. Do you know which?
- 5 easy things you can do to protect your financial privacy.
- How to earn up to 92% profit from the takeover of American utilities by European giants.
- The Pentagon has announced a $141 billion increase in the defense budget over the next 5 years. This company is the best pure defense play.
- Beware of these hidden risks in real estate investing.
- The simple secret to unlocking the liquidity of your IRA.
- 5 essential steps to conserving and enhancing your wealth today.
- 3 compelling reasons why you should diversify into foreign real estate—and 4 places to consider investing in right now.

- 4 common insurance coverage errors that can destroy your family's financial future if left unattended.
- How to preserve your financial liberty with an offshore trust when the world conspires against it.
- The 16 golden rules of financial safety. Are you following them all?
- 4 currencies poised to generate a 10% foreign exchange gain within the next 12 months from currency appreciation against the dollar.
- Why every investor with a net worth of $50,000 or more should immediately put at least 5% of his assets in gold and precious metals. And we mean NOW, not 3 months from today!

Over the past decade, we've made dozens of recommendations that have seen profits of 20% to 100% or more—and some as high as 906%. Taking even a small position on just one of these recommended trades can easily pay back the cost of Club membership 10 times over or more!

If the idea of earning superior returns and protecting your hard-earned wealth in today's volatile market appeals to you, I urge you to accept my risk-free offer of Oxford Club membership today, rather than putting it off.

Why Not Get Your FREE GOLD COIN Today? There Are No Strings Attached

Other than to get your attention, the reason I am offering you a free gold coin, with no strings attached, is to dramatize how strongly we believe that every investor should be buying some gold for his or her portfolio today.

Recent rumblings in the gold market are signaling an end to the yellow metal's lengthy dormant status. An eruption into a full-fledged bull run in gold is nearly upon us, which is why we feel so strongly that all of our Oxford Club members have at least $5 out of every $100 of their investments in this precious metal.

We expect the price of gold to trend higher and higher over the next few years, primarily boosted by geopolitical instability, global economic uncertainty, inflationary pressures, U.S. dollar weakness, gold supply constraints, and increasing world demand. If you do not add gold to your portfolio, it will be unbalanced and no longer optimally diversified.

"Expect gold to make a comeback."

—Mark Skousen, author of over 20 books, including The Power of Economic Thinking and The Making of Modern Day Economics (May 2003)

Fortunately, The Oxford Club has extensive contacts within both the mining industry and the rare coin community, enabling us to bring you the best research on gold investing—as well as make a deal with my dealer to get a fine gold coin for you.

The free gold coin, by the way, is really a beauty. The "uncirculated" rating certifies that the coin is brand new—just minted—and has never been touched. There's no wear or friction from handling that can devalue the coin.

Your coin has been graded by the Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS), the oldest coin grading and authentication service in the world. That's important, because if you tell a coin dealer that you have a PCGS-graded gold coin, they'll buy it from you without seeing it—that's how reputable this company is.

PCGS has even put your gold coin in a nice tamper-proof holder that preserves and protects the coin. You also get a certificate with a complete description of the coin, and a guarantee of authenticity.

If you know coin grading, you'll be happy to hear that the gold coin you receive is certified to be 65 or better—an excellent rating.

One other thing I should mention. Your enrollment as an Oxford Club member is entirely on a risk-free trial basis.

Here's how it works: As soon as we hear from you, we'll rush you a new member welcome package with your bonuses for joining, and activate all your other membership benefits.

When your books, reports, gold coin, and first issue of the Club's advisory letter arrive, examine them carefully.

Then, if you are not 100% satisfied, simply cancel at any time for a full refund of the unused portion of your membership.

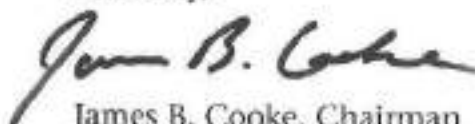

Whatever you decide, all materials received, including your authentic gold coin, are yours to keep FREE—our way of saying "thanks" for giving our Club a try.

To enroll risk-free in The Oxford Club, simply complete and return the Enrollment Form enclosed. Or, call toll-free 866-811-4449 today. A representative is standing by now to process your membership.

There's no risk. You have nothing to lose. And a lot to gain—including FREE GOLD!

Why not send for your free gold coin right now? It's yours to keep FREE and without obligation, even if you decide The Oxford Club is not for you. No strings attached.

Sincerely,

James B. Cooke, Chairman

What Members Are Saying About The Oxford Club

"I'm calling to thank you. My portfolio, thanks to The Oxford Club, is up over 22% year to date, and up over 252% over the last 12 months. Keep up the good work."
~Edward Bayliss (via phone message left 4/11/02)

"I opened my investment account in late June, 2002, with $44,000 and have rolled up consistent double digit and some triple digit gains on Oxford Club recommendations. God bless You!"
~Homer Ryan (June 2003)

"I really enjoy reading the Oxford Insight. I especially liked the recent one advising members to have no more than 5% of our liquid assets in any one stock including those in your 401K. A Morningstar article says the top 3 stock/bond holdings should be less than 25% of the mutual fund assets. However, I think The Oxford Club rule is better with its 5% limit. Thank you very much. My Oxford Club membership is paying off big time! I'm learning very much in a very short time from some of the best in the business."
~John Tepley (Jan 2002)

"I have been a member of The Oxford Club for a few years ... I have belonged to many other investment programs but I am not renewing any of them, just staying with The Oxford Club."
~Joe Yetto (Feb 2002)

"You are doing a magnificent service to the investing world. Thank you!"
~Denis Dominy (Nov 2001)

"Thanks for keeping me informed of the new changes our government is implementing to control investors. You have consistently advised me and I appreciate it."
~Dorothy Price (Jan 2002)

"Over the years, I've come to respect The Oxford Club greatly. I enjoy your regular communication immensely. You have been a steady 'friend' throughout these turbulent times and your council has been clear, focused and profitable. Thank you sincerely."
~Ricardo Rodriques (Nov 2001)

"Just received my membership packet-must say that I am thoroughly pleased and look forward to a long and prosperous relationship with The Oxford Club."
~Hamilton Hagar (Aug 2001)

"I just received my 'new member' package and read it from cover to cover ... excellent first impression!"
~David Camp (Mar 2001)

"Thank you for your tremendous insight in to the everyday ups and downs of the market. You folks have been very helpful with teaching us when enough is enough with the 25% trailing stop technique."
~Arthur Deininger (Jan 2001)

"You are my good friends, being a member of this organization has been a fantastic experience for me. Keep up the good work."
~Silver Chord (Sept 2000)

"Since I joined the Club, my investments have nicely increased. I have learned how to invest better and I have profited from various professional books and advice given. I appreciate the membership even though I don't have time to go to the meetings. My best wishes to you."
~Irma Fekete (June 2000)

"We've made a lot of money with you and we greatly appreciate all the information you give us. You do a fantastic job."
~Thomas Smith (April 2000)

"I wanted to thank you for the invitation to join The Oxford Club. The reason I joined was that I learned some things just by reading your invitation—the trailing stop concept was of particular interest to me. I recently put trailing stops on my stocks and yesterday, I had the first one stop out. You have, potentially, saved me a lot of money. I wish I had done this sooner."
~Mark Mueller (Sept 2001)

"I am enjoying the benefits of Oxford Club membership. Since I have been receiving The Oxford Club's assistance, my investments have increased by over 20%. I am overjoyed. In the past investing was a lonely losing process where I would invest and lose or gain only to see those gains go out the window as I held on during down periods. I think The Oxford Club really cares about the wealth of its members."
~Joseph Bentley (June 2003)

The Oxford Club provides its members with unique opportunities to build and protect wealth, globally, under all market conditions. The executive staff, research department and editors who contribute to the Club's recommendations are proud of the reputation The Oxford Club has built since its inception in 1984. We believe the advice presented to its members in our published measures and at our meetings and seminars is the best and most useful available to investors today. The recommendations and analysis presented to members are for the exclusive use of members. Copying or disseminating any of the information published by The Oxford Club, electronic or otherwise, is strictly prohibited. Members should be aware that investment markets have inherent risks and there can be no guarantee of future profits. Likewise, past performance does not assure future results. FREE Gold Bonus #2—"Golden Days are Here Again" Investor Report

Recent rumblings in the gold market may be signaling an end to the yellow metal's lengthy dormant status. And an eruption into a full-fledged bull run in gold may now be on the horizon, which is why at least 5% of your portfolio should be in gold.

This report explores the factors contributing to the coming surge in gold prices—including geopolitical instability, global economic uncertainties, inflationary pressures, U.S. dollar weakness, gold supply constraints, and growing demand. It also shows you the 5 best ways for you to hold gold, and the pros and cons of each—coins, bars, certificates, gold mining stocks, and gold-denominated preferred stock.

FREE Gold Bonus #3—"A Guide Book of United States Coins"

Known as the "Red Book," this hardcover, 350-page book is the most widely read rare coin pricing guide—a vital tool for maximizing your investment in coins. Includes:

Special Report: The Nobel Prize-Winning Secret to Maximizing Returns with Minimal Risk

This investment strategy, formulated by Nobel Prize-winning economist Dr. Harold Markowitz, has stood the test of time for over a century through both bull and bear markets.

Dr. Markowitz proved that there are only 6 factors that will determine what your investment portfolio will be worth in the future. In this report, you'll discover how to use these 6 factors to protect your wealth and earn handsome gains even in today's market. You'll learn:

- The best time to invest your money ... and the worst.
- Tax strategies that retain your earnings instead of giving it to the IRS.
- The simple secret legendary investor John Templeton used to turn $10,000 into $2.3 million in his Templeton Growth Fund.
- An easy technique that helps ward off the effects of inflation on your net worth.
- How to avoid hidden investment fees that rob you of hard-won returns.
- The ideal asset allocation strategy for today's bear market.
- And more ...
