

ABOUT THE JOURNAL'S
EDITOR

Guiding the editorial mission of The Journal of Private Equity is senior editor Dr. James Schragger.

To bring you the best and brightest research in this field, Dr. Schragger will be joined on the Editorial Advisory Board by leading venture capitalists, research analysts, consultants, and academics — many of whom reveal their cutting-edge methods for the first time ever within these pages.

Dr. Schragger holds several advanced degrees including a Ph.D. in business policy and organization behavior from the University of Chicago Graduate School of Business, a J.D. from DePaul University Law College, and an M.B.A. from the University of Colorado.

In 1996, Business Week magazine picked Dr. Schragger as one of the "top 10 entrepreneurship teachers in the United States" and the University of Chicago School of Business named him "Teacher of the Year."

Dr. Schragger is also president of Great Lakes Consulting Group, where his responsibilities include the maintenance and growth of the $800 million public market capitalization of Getz Japan.

THE JOURNAL OF PRIVATE EQUITY:

STRATEGIES AND TECHNIQUES FOR VENTURE INVESTING

VENTURE INVESTORS* GREET THE JOURNAL OF PRIVATE EQUITY WITH ENTHUSIASTIC KUDOS:

"This journal is a great idea. The industry is changing and becoming more professional and systematic. People in the industry are thinking more in terms of processes, strategies, models, and practical information."

"Often, magazines, conferences, and networking allows you to see who's doing what. But nowhere can you find more in-depth information on the important subtleties of the industry."

"There's nothing like it today ... a good way of cross referencing ideas, skills, and thought processes."

"...the journal will be quite valuable as a tool for continuing education and keeping pace with the latest innovation."

The Journal of Private Equity is the first — and only — quarterly journal dedicated to in-depth analysis of today's most innovative strategies and effective techniques for venture investing ... from seed capital and early stage investing, to later stage, mezzanine, and special case financing.

The Journal gives you the what, how, and why of venture investing. In each issue, leading practitioners provide you with practical information and new ideas you can immediately apply to your own deals including:

CASE HISTORIES

In-depth profiles of major deals: how the deal was found; deal structure; selection and compensation of the management team; results achieved; lessons learned; recommendations for future deals.

FINANCIAL APPLICATIONS

Structuring value-added transactions, alternative exit strategies, business valuation models, optimum fund structures, analysis of private vs. public equity returns, stock market effects on the valuation of venture portfolios, and more.

CROSS-BORDER ISSUES

How to locate opportunities and manage risk when investing abroad. Hottest overseas markets for venture investing. Locating and selecting international partners.

INDUSTRY ANALYSIS

Industry surveys outline competition, market structure, technology lifecycles, future investment potential, and other factors in traditional and emerging venture markets, from PCS networks to new car dealerships.

MANAGEMENT METHODOLOGIES

Strategies and techniques for assessing business plans and management teams, dealing with contingency plans, finding deals in crowded markets, coping with regulatory and tax changes, selecting and compensating management teams, incentive structures, and more.

Here's a sampling of the types of topics that will be covered in upcoming issues of The Journal of Private Equity:

"Making Sense of Prices in a PCS Auction"

"When is Technology Ready for Commercialization?"

"Successfully Exiting when the IPO Window Closes"

"Overcoming the Challenges of DCF in Pre-IPO Valuation"

"A Comparison of IRRs vs. Actual Cash Returns"

"Can a Japanese Venture Fund Expand in the U.S.?"

"Mexico: The New Hot Spot for Private Equity"

"Locating Deal Flow in South America"

"Health Care: Prospects for the Future"

"Carving Out Investment Opportunities in New Media"

"Optimal Incentive Structures for Management"

"How to Build a Winning Management Team"

And many more...

- ▶ How do I select good companies to fund?
- ▶ What are reasonable rates of returns for the sectors I invest in?
- ▶ When should I stop funding deals that aren't working?
- ▶ Where can I find more high-potential deals to review?
- ▶ Why was the FCC's latest PCS auction such a disaster?
- ▶ How can I use DCF to value companies before taking them public?
- ▶ Who should be placed on the board of directors of emerging companies?
- ▶ Why do some management teams that look good on paper fail in real life?
- ▶ How do I know which technologies are past their prime and should be avoided?

Dear Colleague:

There are many publications that cover the news of the week in venture capital and private equity financings ... but none that gives you the hows and whys of each deal.

Now The Journal of Private Equity: Strategies and Techniques for Venture Investing fills that information gap. As no other publication can.

Brought to you by the prestigious Institutional Investor Journals, The Journal of Private Equity is the only resource that gives you access to the structures, strategies, plans, and approaches of today's most successful venture investors ... and shows how to apply these techniques to increase the profitability of your own deals.

Written exclusively by venture investors and researchers for their peers within the private equity and venture capital communities, the Journal gives you an "insider's" perspective that other financial publications do not provide.

Whether your challenge is selecting a management team or board of directors for an emerging company, increasing your deal flow, finding the next great company or technology to invest in, exploring international opportunities, or evaluating your rate of return against sector "norms." The Journal of Private Equity gives you insightful, useful advice and how-to tips that can help you do your job better.

(over, please)

To get a risk-free trial issue of The Journal of Private Equity, simply return the invitation enclosed. For faster service, call (212) 224-3185 or fax your request to (212) 224-3527. When your premier issue of the Journal arrives, examine it carefully. You'll see that it delivers a wealth of new ideas and concepts that are immediately practical and implementable.

If you like The Journal of Private Equity, you can continue your subscription with three more quarterly issues at the special Charter Discount Rate of just $250. That's 41% off the regular subscription rate of $425. You save $175.

However, if you choose not to continue your subscription, just write "cancel" on your invoice, and you will owe us nothing. The first issue is yours to keep FREE.

Today the burgeoning private equity and venture capital business is more competitive and crowded than ever. The venture capital market alone has tripled over the last 24 months, with investments now exceeding $10 billion annually.

With a lot of money at stake and a lot more players involved, the rules are changing - fast - and it's more difficult than ever to keep current. If you're a professional involved in private equity or venture capital, The Journal of Private Equity can help you stay on the cutting edge of venture investing theory and practice... in both domestic and global markets.

With this in mind, why not send for the premier issue risk-free today? You have everything to gain.

Sincerely,

Gauri Goyal
Publisher

P.S. Because this is our premier issue, only a limited number of copies of The Journal of Private Equity will be printed. To ensure that you reserve your copy while supplies last, please mail the enclosed risk-free invitation today.
