Herbal tonic once banned by the Canadian government helps cure hundreds of prostate cancer cases; now available in the U.S.A.

By A. Jacob

An herbal remedy known to help cure hundreds of prostate cancer cases, and once banned by the Canadian government, is now available once again — and without a doctor’s prescription.

Not only does this natural herbal tonic help cure prostate cancer without painful surgery, chemo, or radiation — it also reduces inflammation or enlargement of urinary organs in both men and women.
